H.B. Pack, Jr. Honored At Retirement Dinner

On Thursday evening, September 7th, 1978 H. B. Pack, Jr., retiring mayor of the town of Appomattox, was honored with a dinner at the John Mosby Inn Restaurant.

Pack, a graduate of VPI/SU, taught agriculture at Clover and Scottsburg in Halifax County before entering the army in 1940 where he attained the rank of Major.

He returned to his chosen field of teaching in 1946 when he came to Appomattox to teach agriculture in the high school. His contribution in the field of education as well as his contribution to church, civic and political areas of the county have made Henry Pack a man held in high esteem by his fellowmen.

During his years as mayor for the Town of Appomattox and dedicated public servant the town has grown, its service to the people has increased and improved in many ways. In his quiet, unassuming way he has been a great force for good as well as for progress.

Also receiving recognition dedicated service was Burke Guill, councilman.
